

Projections of 2002 National Agricultural Census for Oregon

Data from USDA's 2002 National Agricultural Census shows that Oregon produced and sold $9,933,000 worth of organic products in 2001, a figure that has since been bolstered by sales that have increased at least 20% per year since the data was published, bringing the figure to approximately $20,000,000 for the 2005 season.

Year	Amount
2001	$9,933,000
2002	11,919,600
2003	14,303,520
2004	17,164,224
2005	20,597,068
2006	24,716,481
2007	29,659,777